Books & Bridles: The Story of the Packhorse Librarians Online Program Thursday, November 18th, 6:30 p.m.

Jeffrey Urbin, Education Specialist at the Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum, will share the story of the Pack Horse Library initiative, a little known program of FDR's Work Progress Administration (WPA).
Its mission, carried out almost entirely by women, was to deliver and distribute reading materials to the far off corners of Appalachia during the darkest hours of the Great Depression. Register on our website to get the Zoom link.

A Warm Welcome from McArthur Public Library - Coming Soon! Saturday, December 4th from 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

We have partnered with the national non-profit Operation Warm in order to be able to provide 204 brand-new, high quality coats to kids in need in our community.

Operation Warm is dedicated to providing warmth, confidence and hope to children in need.
Participants may drop in anytime from 10-2 on Saturday, 12/4 to select a coat, choose a free book to keep, sign up for a library card and pick-up a take home activity kit. Other activities will be ongoing:
story time demos, scavenger hunt and self guided story walk on the lawn. Coats offered will be a variety of sizes and colors (2T - Youth 18) on a first-come/ first-serve basis.
