Zoom Author Event with Carole Fontaine

Thursday, May 13th, 6:30 p.m.

Join us online with Carole Fontaine, who will virtually discuss her book S.A.I.L Above the Clouds-How To Simplify Your Life. Fontaine lived on a sailboat in Florida for 20 years, cruised The Bahamas, and sailed the East Coast before landing in Maine in 2018. Register on our website for the link or FMI, contact Melanie at mtcoombs@mcarthurlibrary.org

CSA with Black Kettle Farm

Eat organic! Eat local! It is easy when you sign-up for a farm share from Black Kettle Farm. Delicious farm fresh produce delivered every Wednesday June 16th - October 13th between 4:00-6:00p.m. at the library. Spaces are limited so visit www.blackkettlefarm.com to sign up now! SNAP/EBT benefits accepted and participates with Maine Harvest Bucks.

Totes for CSA Pick-up! Kids can come to the library (by appointment) and decorate a bag for the CSA program and one for themselves to keep. Spaces are limited. Please note your interest in decorating a bag when making your appointment.

Coming Soon! Summer Learning Program Learn Local: Explore Biddeford

Highlights include: A name the mascot contest (it is a hermit crab), an ongoing community scavenger hunt and more.

Coming Soon! Biddeford Gardens Sunflower Trails

In collaboration with Biddeford Gardens, we will be offering free seed packages to create a sunflower trail across Biddeford!

Stay tuned FMI!
